Dr. Ransom and Colleagues Win “Best Clinical Paper” Award from the Esteemed Aesthetic Surgery Journal

Dr. Evan Ransom and three of his colleagues were awarded the “Best Clinical Paper” honor from the prestigious Aesthetic Surgery Journal for the year 2010. Their paper, titled Surgical Treatment of Nasal Obstruction in Rhinoplasty was the most-referenced clinical paper in the journal for the entire year and continues to be an important source of information for rhinoplasty surgeons. The award was received in a ceremony held in Boston, Massachusetts in May 2011. Dr. Ransom and his colleagues continue their efforts to improve rhinoplasty techniques, tools, and technology.
